Sunset High School's first principal was John A. "Jack" Wilson. He was born on April 10, 1878 in Detroit, Michigan to Joseph Wilson and Barbara McMurchie Wilson; both of his parents were immigrants from Ireland and Scotland. He completed his high school education at Central High School in Detroit.

For his scholastic and athletic achievements he was awarded a scholarship to Lafayette College in Easton, Pennsylvania. In 1901 he received his B. A. degree and in 1904 he received his M. A. from Lafayette College.

But the call of sea beckoned him and he spent two years on sailing ships before he began his teaching career at his old alma mater, Central High School.

Once again, he was lured back to the sea, this time it was due to the start of World War I. On April 9, 1917, Mr. Wilson joined the U. S. Navy as Commander of the U.S.S. Summers. During the latter part of 1917, he was the navigating officer of the U. S. S. Bath. He was then transferred to the destroyer force, serving on the U. S. S. Reid and the U. S. S. Laub.

Having been discharged from active duty on January 1, 1920 at the end of the war, Mr. Wilson entered into business in New Orleans but in 1921, the sea called once more and he took his place as chief mate on the steamer, Boswell.

Finally, in October 1921, he left his "sea legs" behind and joined the faculty at Bryan High School. From 1922 to 1925 he taught history and coached athletics at North Dallas High School before taking the helm as the first principal at Sunset High in 1925.

Mr. Wilson married Eva Lenore Smith and they had one daughter, Barbara L. Wilson. Barbara graduated from Sunset in 1929. Mrs. Wilson was also a teacher. While principal of Sunset, he resided on South Montclair. Mr. Wilson died on October 2, 1946 in Dallas, Texas and was laid to rest in his hometown of Detroit.

In the words of Mr. Wilson as he took the helm and began his steerage to the students of Sunset:

"It is my earnest wish that Sunset High School may represent a spirit in this community which shall bespeak scholarship, tolerance and integrity."

In Recognition: Carol Helton Walt, Class of 1962

Carol Helton Walt, Class of 1962

After receiving her Masters in Social Work, she worked for the State of Texas in the field of child protective services for thirty-two years. Upon retirement, she began writing travel articles which were published in Frommer's "Budget Travel" magazine and in the Dallas Morning News. She has since published seven books with an eighth book now in production. She has written fiction including short stories, romances, serious fiction, children's books and one murder mystery. After retirement, she and her husband moved to their ranch in Cross, Texas near Rising Star, TX. She enjoys speaking to groups such as students, book clubs and civic groups about writing and literature. For several years she has worked in behalf of Howard Payne University as a guest reviewer doing reviews of newly published children's books. She offers editing and consultation services to aspiring writers through "Walt's Across Texas Writers Services".

Each year she participates in book fairs and other literary events around the state. In September, she will be at the West Texas Book Fair in Abilene and also at the East Texas Book Fest in Tyler. When not writing or engaged in book events, she travels a lot internationally. She keeps wondering where are these "golden years of leisure" that were promised since she is busier now than ever! We wish Carol continued success!

1933 Gas Explosion at Sunset

On Oct 11, 1933 at 2:30 p.m. there was a gas explosion that damaged the west wing of the school. The head custodian was killed. No one remembers who the custodian was, his name, etc. He has long been forgotten or so we thought!

William Henry Franklin was born on Jan 2, 1896 in Tennessee to George W. Franklin and Nancy Carter. His wife was Willie Mae Franklin and they resided at 2614 Maryland. Mr. Franklin was 37 years old and suffered burns over 75% of his body. He was laid to rest at Laurel Land Cemetery. Mr Franklin had been with Sunset for 3 years when the accident occurred. Now we know and he will forever be remembered!

World War II Memoriam

Ballard Burgher "Buck" Cobb Class of '38

Seaman, US Navy was born January 2, 1920 to William and Josephine Cobb in Dallas. Seaman Cobb was a crew member on board the battleship, USS Arizona (BB-39) on that fateful day of December 7, 1941. He was the first Sunset High School Alumni to die in World War II. His final resting place is within the hull of the ship along with 1,115 other crew members who perished that day.

The SHSAA are eternally grateful for the hard work and dedication that Ron L. Harris Class '56 has compiled on the 144 Sunset High Alumni that perished in WWII. We feel that it is befitting to honor each of these men in future newsletters.

The Authors Among Us:

Susan Dillon Tschudi, MA, LMFT (1967) has written a book, "Loving Someone with Attention Deficit Disorder: A Practical Guide to Understanding Your Partner, Improving Communication and Strengthening Your Relationship." As a licensed Marriage and Family therapist, she noticed that there was a lot of information available for the individual diagnosed with ADD but there wasn't very much information that could help the non-ADD partner in a relationship. Her book helps the reader understand that the symptoms attached to ADD can cause relational problems and offers thorough, practical advice for handling the frustrations that can build up.

On Saturday March 10th, 2012 a ceremony was held at the Old Red Courthouse museum in Dallas to dedicate the Sanger trophy, given by the 6 original Dallas High Schools to the museum for all the citizens of Dallas to cherish and enjoy, and to honor those distinguished alumni chosen by each of the schools. BISON SPIRIT

Forty years (and a week) after graduating from Sunset High School, the Class of 1972 proved that spirit, knowledge, and friendship are alive and well within the herd! The '72 alumni reunited in Dallas on June 8-10, to enjoy a golf tournament and a mixer on Friday, a tour of the alma mater and "main event" on Saturday, and a picnic on Sunday.

The agenda was a familiar one, as the lineup was similar their 10, 20, 30 and 35-year reunions. While all events were well attended, those who joined in on the school tour may be the last to be photographed on those stately front steps in front of Sunset High School! Inside the recently renovated structure, members of the current baseball team and yearbook staff volunteered as tour guides. The class showed appreciation by "tipping" these SHS students and thereby donated over $1300 to supplement school spending for the baseball and yearbook programs!

The original class of over 540 students is now spread out across the USA, and, literally, around the world. Classmates who attended came from all over Texas, and at least 12 other states. Some who couldn't make it begged to be "Skyped in" [Maybe next time!], and those who did attend dubbed it the "best reunion yet!"

At the main event, the Sunset Fight Song grabbed everybody's attention for a brief program, including a presentation by Dallas City Councilwoman Delia DeLeon Jasso. "Most Talented Senior Boy" Richard Malmos offered an a cappella rendition of the alma mater, and, in a slideshow produced by Shannon Braden, the class revisited the culture of 1972 and watched as their Sundial mug shots "age progressed" into more recent photographs, quickly illustrating what 40 years can do!

Just before '72 Class President Rick Loy offered a blessing for the meal, David Allen lead a very special memorial tribute to those who have departed the herd. As he read the roll of the deceased classmates, individuals in the audience answered "present" or "here" to recognize that these classmates were there in spirit – and will always be remembered.

The Bison Spoke! [Yes, you read correctly.] This class has their own bison which, from a prominent spot above the crowd, repeated the words last heard by this group at a pep rally in 1972. Via the recorded voice of Dr. H.H. Johns – "Bo" admonished the class to "...develop and keep throughout your lives 'worthy and true friendships with other Bisons..."

Though in some cases it took a few minutes, a re-introduction, and a story or two to recognize once-familiar faces, for others, reconnecting was immediate. Some tears were shed for those lost along the way but – through those tears, shared memories, hugs and laughter, dancing, photographs, and true camaraderie – Sunset's Class of '72 honored Bo's timeless guidance with a bond that holds fast after forty years. ...And counting!

Happy 50th Anniversary

June Wedding Bells were ringing!

Congratulations to James Robert (Bob) Mayo, Class '66 and Sara Starnes, Class '66 who were married in Plano on June 27, 2012. Bob and Sara connected on Classmates and the rest is history! They are currently residing in Richardson. We wish them the very best and wonder why it took so long!!

James Kocian '61 and Melinda Leath Kocian '62 celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in June by taking their two children and five grandchildren on a 7-day cruise to Montego Bay, Grand Cayman Island and Cozumel. Everyone had a wonderful time and what a great way to celebrate 50 years together!

The first Bison Football squad was coached by Harold Higgins.

What was their nickname?

Answer will appear in the Winter Newsletter

Answer to Summer Trivia - Jack A. Wilson, Congratulations if you got this right!

A committee has been formed in order to preserve and protect Sunset High School and obtain a historical designation for our school. A preliminary meeting was held in May 2012 to determine the first steps needed to move forward with our goal and a committee was formed. The committee is co-chaired by Cindy Womble Billman and Mitch Womble.

A second meeting was held on August 18th and assignments were given to Joe Whitney and Warren Johnson who will obtain building plans, sketches, renovations, etc that is needed for the report. Cindy will be drafting the report, Mitch will be taking current photos and co-ordinating with Marcel Quimby, a Preservation Architect, who has volunteered her services and will assist in tying the report together.

Many thanks to the Adamson Alumni Association members, Johnny Ruiz and Bob Johnston for sharing the Adamson High School Report, their generous time and continued support to help Sunset obtain the historical designation.
